

Edge

Hold me back, don't let me fall

You are strong, you are tall

I am on the edge

A cliff that scares me

Wanting

To be carefree

Hold my hand, keep me steady

Let me balance, when I'm ready

I may falter

With feet unsure

Wanting something

Pure

Hold me close and keep me safe

I see something in your face

I will try hard

My will is strong

Even if my heart

Is not
